Godiah Spray Tobacco
Plantation

Driving to the Site

- We will have to drive to the Godiah Spray Tobacco Plantation.
- It is a short drive down Rosecroft road.

Plantation

- The Godiah Spray Tobacco Plantation staff are in first-person, which means they are pretending to be from the same time period that the Plantation is set in – the year 1667.
- Being at the Plantation will be like going into a time machine!

Interpreters

- The staff at the Plantation are called interpreters – they may tell me about the past and act it out for me!
- These interpreters may be in costumes and dressed like they are from 1667. This is part of first-person.
- I may ask them questions if I have any.

Seeing the Animals

- I may see cows while I am walking around the Plantation.
- Their names are Bob and Trouble!

Seeing the Animals

- I may see a pig while I am walking around the Plantation.

Seeing the Animals

- I may see chickens while I am walking around the Plantation.

Seeing the Animals

- I may see a cat while I am walking around the Plantation.
- Her name is Winifred!

Tobacco House

- I may see the Tobacco House while I am walking around the Plantation.
- There are a lot of drying tobacco leaves inside for me to see.

Garden

- I may see a garden while I am walking around the Plantation.
- Colonists would have grown plants for food and medicine here.

Main House

- I may see a colonial house while I am walking around the Plantation.
- This house has many rooms.
- This room is the main room.

Main House

- This room is the Buttery.
- I may visit the Buttery if I want.

Main House

- This room is the above stairs.
- The steps to get up are dark and narrow, but I will be safe.
- I may visit the above stairs if I want.

Places to Rest

- There are picnic tables near the parking lot of the Plantation where I may sit and rest or eat.

Places to Rest

- There is a water fountain near the parking lot of the Plantation.
- I may get a drink here.

Places to Rest

- There is a bench on the path toward the pigs where I may sit and rest.
- The bench looks like a split log!

For Help

- If I need help or have a question, I can ask my guardian or an interpreter in a costume, and they will be happy to help me.
