

HISTORIC ST. MARY'S CITY

A MUSEUM OF HISTORY & ARCHAEOLOGY AT
MARYLAND'S FIRST CAPITAL

Historic St. Mary's City Museum, a museum of living history and archaeology, located on the site of Maryland's first capitol (1634 – 1695) seek applicants for the position of Living History Interpreter.

Living History Interpreter (note: new hourly pay rate)

Details

Saturdays and some Sundays in the summer included.

Requires working in uniform or 17th-century costume (provided).

Opportunity to teach history in an outdoor classroom at one or more of the following sites:

- 17th -century farm
- A square-rigged ship, Maryland Dove
- Native American village
- Reconstructed town center at Maryland's 1st capital.

Must be willing to learn 17th -century skills and have excellent communication skills.

Hours

Work schedule can vary from 14 to 35 hours per week.

Seasonal positions from early March through November.

Salary: All positions are paid starting at $16.95/hour and include paid training.

Positions are open until filled.

Submit cover letter and resume to:

Aaron.meisinger@maryland.gov

Historic St. Mary's City is an Equal Opportunity Employer

P.O. BOX 39, ST. MARY'S CITY, MARYLAND 20686

Wes Moore, Governor

Timothy L. Heely, Chairman

Regina M. Faden, Ph.D., Executive Director